UNITED NATIONS LOGISTICS OFFICERS COURSE

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P279379/P309379

CERTIFICATION: PME

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) United Nations Logistics (UNLOG) Officers Course enhances the capacities of participating nations by increasing the number and capabilities of national logistics officers available for service in United Nations (UN) and other peacekeeping missions. The course meets and exceeds current standards of performance established by the UN. It includes extensive best practices and lessons learned from ongoing peacekeeping operations (PKO). The goal of this training is to improve the abilities of national armed forces to participate and succeed in UN PKO.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand major issues in modern PKO.
- ◆ Understand the UN structure enabling the performance of logistical staff duties.
- ◆ Review logistics management structures, including national, mission, and UN headquarters responsibilities.
- ◆ Understand national roles and responsibilities for deployment/redeployment, supply, and sustainment logistics.
- ◆ Establish baseline logistics staff skills necessary for operating within a peacekeeping force headquarters.
- ◆ Understand the UN Women, Peace, and Security agenda; Protection of Civilians; and Counter Trafficking in Persons topics.

TOPICS

The training methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts, group and plenary discussions, and classroom exercises. The focus of group discussions and exercises is problem-solving based on a fictitious PKO scenario or on standalone problems related to various aspects of PKO. Course topics may include:

- ◆ The UN logistics system
- ◆ Contingent-owned equipment
- ◆ Logistics guidelines and integrated service support (ISS)
- ◆ Force generation and UN standby arrangements system
- ◆ Movement control: general, sea, and air
- ◆ Rotation, repatriation, liquidation, engineering, procurement, and personnel

PARTICIPANTS

Participant rank or grade should be O-3 to O-5 or civilian equivalents. Preference is given to nominees with training responsibilities or those earmarked for service as PKO logistics officers in UN multinational and sector headquarters.

ISG PROGRAM AREAS

ISG's tailored education and professional development programs help to build a comprehensive knowledge base and strengthen partner capacities to confront complex security and defense challenges. Engagements are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues, foster peer-to-peer learning, and build international communities of practice.

FACULTY

ISG has a diverse faculty team grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the U.S. Government's Security Cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant U.S. Embassy's security cooperation organization for selection processes and enrollment. Interested U.S. citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales, Peacekeeping Operations) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
