

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE

DEFENSE SECURITY COOPERATION UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTIONAL CAPACITY BUILDING FOR LOGISTICS

RESIDENT: P179931

MOBILE: N/A

CERTIFICATION: PME, E-IMET (PNDG)

This course focuses on logistics management (LM) concepts/principles to build and strengthen partner nation (PN) institutional capacity.

OBJECTIVES

Upon conclusion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Comprehend and apply LM concepts and principles to specific partner nation needs.
- ◆ Define and discuss the relationship among LM, resource management (RM), and human resource management (HRM) in support of Institutional Capacity Building (ICB).
- ◆ Understand the importance of continuous assessment of LM functions and institutions.
- ◆ Discuss the principles of civilian control of the military and its impact on LM.
- ◆ Describe the impact of law/military judicial systems on the practice of institutional LM for a partner's security forces.

TOPICS

Using a combination of case study presentations, lectures, small-group exercises/activities, and structured discussions, this course examines, among others, the following general and specific topics:

- ◆ Global security trends from an LM perspective
- ◆ Assessing a partner's LM capacity
- ◆ Resource management, logistics, and special topics
- ◆ LM ICB and security exercise
- ◆ Health services support

PARTICIPANTS

For this course, participants will have responsibility in functions related to logistics management (LM) at higher echelons of national security governance (security force executive-, ministerial-, or service-staffs). Ordinarily, participants are mid- to senior-level service members and their civilian equivalents.

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE (ISG) EDUCATION PORTFOLIOS

ISG's tailored education and professional development courses help build a comprehensive knowledge base and strengthen partner capacities to confront complex security and defense challenges. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues; foster peer-to-peer learning; and build international communities of practice.

FACULTY

ISG's faculty team is grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the U.S. Government's Security Cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant U.S. Embassy's Security Cooperation organization for selection processes and enrollment. Interested U.S. citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs, including International Military Education and Training (IMET), Foreign Military Sales (FMS), Peacekeeping Operations (PKO), and various Title 10 authorized programs, including the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.