EXECUTIVE COURSE FOR NATIONAL PEACEKEEPING PLANNING (ECNPP)

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P279049/P319322

CERTIFICATION: PME

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) Executive Course for National Peacekeeping Planning enhances participants' understanding of the key analysis processes that inform national decision-makers, ensuring that political commitments and military deployments to United Nations (UN) peacekeeping are well-planned, properly directed, and adequately resourced. The goal of this training is to improve the ability of national armed forces to participate in UN peacekeeping operations (PKO) in order to resolve international crises.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Recognize the strategic value of contribution to UN peacekeeping and its linkage to national defense strategy and planning.
- ◆ Discuss current peacekeeping mandates and tasks relevant to the military, police, and other mission components.
- ◆ Understand UN strategic- and operational-level Integrated Assessment and Planning processes.
- ◆ Identify the peacekeeping mission life cycle, logistic support concept, and reimbursement framework.
- ◆ Understand the Force Generation process and the UN Uniformed Capabilities Management System.
- ◆ Identify the Peacekeeping Capability Readiness System) and the performance evaluation mechanism.

TOPICS

The training methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts in conjunction with group discussions, plenary discussions, and classroom exercises. Group discussions and exercises focus on problem-solving in fictitious peacekeeping operation scenarios or standalone problems related to various aspects of PKO. Course topics may include:

- ◆ Operational environment: threats, trends, and robust capabilities
- ◆ Legal framework for UN engagement
- ◆ Link between National Defense Strategy and PKO planning
- ◆ Mission life cycle, force design, and support concept
- ◆ Force generation process
- ◆ Reimbursement and contingent-owned equipment methodology

PARTICIPANTS

Participant rank or grade should be O-7 to O-8 or the civilian equivalent. The course targets senior police, military, and civilian personnel responsible for advising political leadership on UN peacekeeping issues, including national commitments to deploy, and personnel engaged with the planning, deployment, and oversight of national contributions to UN peacekeeping.

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE (ISG) EDUCATION PORTFOLIOS

ISG's tailored education and professional development courses help build a comprehensive knowledge base and strengthen partner capacities to confront complex security and defense challenges. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues; foster peer-to-peer learning; and build international communities of practice.

FACULTY

ISG's faculty team is grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the U.S. Government's Security Cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant U.S. Embassy's Security Cooperation organization for selection processes and enrollment. Interested U.S. citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs, including International Military Education and Training (IMET), Foreign Military Sales (FMS), Peacekeeping Operations (PKO), and various Title 10 authorized programs, including the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
