UNITED NATIONS MILITARY PEACEKEEPING INTELLIGENCE

RESIDENT: N/A

MOBILE: P279051/P319324

CERTIFICATION: PME

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) United Nations (UN) Military Peacekeeping Intelligence (MPKI) course prepares potential staff for intelligence functions with a UN Force or Sector Headquarters, or within a Joint Mission Analysis Center (JMAC) in a UN peacekeeping mission. The course meets current standards of performance established by the UN and includes best practices from other nations' peacekeeping operations (PKO) training. The goal of this training is to improve the ability of national armed forces to participate in UN PKO in order to resolve international crises.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Explain the principles of MPKI.
- ◆ Apply the peacekeeping-intelligence cycle at the operational level.
- ◆ Understand key rules of international law relevant to UN MPKI.
- ◆ Gain the ability to develop and use basic UN MPKI analysis tools to support the Military Decision-Making Process.
- ◆ Recognize the importance of MPKI in the protection of UN personnel, and preempting attacks on civilians.
- ◆ Understand the UN Women, Peace, and Security agenda; Protection of Civilians; and Counter Trafficking in Persons topics.

TOPICS

The training methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts, group and plenary discussions, and classroom exercises. Group discussions and exercises focus on problem-solving in fictitious PKO scenarios or on standalone problems related to various aspects of PKO. Course topics may include:

- ◆ United Nations Military Peacekeeping Intelligence overview
- ◆ The UN Legal framework and UN MPKI
- ◆ MPKI cycle and intelligence functions
- ◆ Analysis of the Operating Environment
- ◆ MPKI support to the Military Decision-Making Process
- ◆ MPKI support to Protection of Civilians planning

PARTICIPANTS

Participant rank or grade should be O-3 to O-6 equivalents. The course targets those who will or may deploy as staff officers at a UN Force/Sector Headquarters within the military intelligence branch (U2/G2) or at JMACs, intelligence officers deploying with national contingents, or faculty/trainers assigned to peacekeeping training centers.

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE (ISG) EDUCATION PORTFOLIOS

ISG's tailored education and professional development courses help build a comprehensive knowledge base and strengthen partner capacities to confront complex security and defense challenges. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues; foster peer-to-peer learning; and build international communities of practice.

FACULTY

ISG's faculty team is grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the U.S. Government's Security Cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant U.S. Embassy's Security Cooperation organization for selection processes and enrollment. Interested U.S. citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs, including International Military Education and Training (IMET), Foreign Military Sales (FMS), Peacekeeping Operations (PKO), and various Title 10 authorized programs, including the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
