DEFENSE SECURITY COOPERATION UNIVERSITY

RESIDENT & MOBILE EDUCATION

The Institute for Security Governance's (ISG) Resident and Mobile Education provides military and civilian officials with unique education and professional development programs that support Security Cooperation and Institutional Capacity Building (ICB). Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues; foster peer-to-peer learning; and build international communities of practice. Education programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs (International Military Education and Training, Foreign Military Sales) and various Title 10 authorized programs such as Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ISG provides adaptable, scalable, and tailored educational programs across a wide array of defense and security functions to address U.S. and partner nation security objectives.

EDUCATION PORTFOLIOS

ISG's mission is accomplished through a range of partner advising, education, and professional development programs. ISG's Practice & Capability Division consists of defense and security focus areas designed to support both ISG advising and education engagements.

FACULTY

ISG's faculty team is grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

IMPLEMENTATION MODES

RESIDENT EDUCATION: Conducted primarily at ISG headquarters in Monterey, California for an international cohort in an adult-learning style; includes breakout groups, interactive exercises, student-led presentations, and related approaches; provides adaptable, scalable, and tailored education programs across a wide array of focus areas to address U.S. and partner nation security objectives.

MOBILE: Conducted in bilateral or regional formats in partner countries; tailored to the bilateral and/or regional context; designed in working group, workshop, and seminar formats.

ABOUT ISG:

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses.

As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.

In FY24, ISG hosted Resident Course participants hailing from 96 countries and conducted Mobile Education Training Courses in 14 countries around the globe.

For more detailed information about ISG's work, the Institute has published a series of ICB Smart Sheets on its website, designed to inform USG stakeholders and partner institutions about specific ICB functional or issue areas.
